Connect with Dr. Nina Daws

At first glance, Dr. Nina Daws can seem a bit shy. And while she's not the loudest in the room or eager to be the center of attention, her warmth & personality shine through when she's engaging one-on-one with patients. Her genuine passion for forging personal connections is the cornerstone of her approach to patient care, fostering trust and comfort in every interaction.

Prior to moving to Michigan, Dr. Daws called California, Texas, and even Iran home. In fact, Dr. Daws is Iranian by culture and speaks Farsi fluently. Now she is proud to call Rochester Hills home, along with her husband TJ and two young children, 3-year-old Leo and 6-month-old Lily.

Dr. Daws is a graduate of UC Berkeley and received her Doctor of Dental Surgery degree from the extremely competitive University of the Pacific in San Francisco. She's an expert in aesthetic & cosmetic dentistry, full mouth reconstruction, smile makeovers, facelift dentures, and treating TMJ and sleep disorders. After meeting Dr. Haddad at a sleep seminar, she knew she wanted to help him change his patients' lives. Read more about Dr. Daws' impressive credentials here.
